Typical inclusions are lodging in the destination area, breakfast, transportation to scheduled events, and most admissions. At least one tour escort from Cultured will be with each group throughout the duration of the tour. The cost of a tour guide or local guide if applicable will be included as well as that of the tour escort(s) of Cultured.

Not Included in the Tour Price

Any fees associated with passports or visas as needed. Any fees associated with changes made to the name found on a participant's travel documentation after it has already been submitted to Cultured as applicable. Flights and any costs incurred regarding flights (baggage fees, change fees, etc.). Any fees for traveler's insurance or additional protection plans. Transportation or accommodation costs prior to arrival at the destination. Any transportation costs to the designated destination and return. Parking costs incurred prior to, during, or after the tour but related to departure/arrival. Additional or increased fees/taxes/surcharges passed on by hotels, ground transit, or other services and activities. Lunches, dinners, snacks, and beverages unless specified otherwise on the final itinerary. Gratuities (as applicable). Expenses (i.e.: souvenirs, snacks, drinks) accumulated during periods considered to be "down time".

Travel Insurance

It is strongly recommended that all participants purchase travel or trip interruption insurance and may be required for some tours. Cultured is not responsible for the purchase of the insurance or the lack of the purchase of such insurance. Cultured is not responsible for any refunding of such insurance if a trip is canceled or any handling of any claims made through purchased insurance. Any and all interactions regarding travel insurance remain fully between the company and the participant and or guardian(s) of the participant.

Custom Group Tours

While some tours will be prearranged by Cultured Travel, other tours may be customized for a particular group. The minimum number of participants varies per tour destination and prices will vary for any tour contingent upon the number of participants. Such tours will be arranged through a group leader and Cultured. If Cultured is specifically customizing a tour for any particular group, it reserves the right to change any portions of the non-refundable fees of enrollment to reflect advance reservations costs that it will incur. Cultured also reserves the right to require a higher deposit to secure a spot on such tours in order to cover costs incurred by the company which are non-refundable should a cancellation occur.

Changes in the Tour

As stated in the release, Cultured reserves the right at any time to change any of the following but not limited to fees, dates, cities, itinerary items, hotels or transportation. Cultured also has the right to make substitutions or omissions to itinerary items should the need arise for various reasons. Any changes made do not constitute a refund. Should Cultured acting on its own behalf cancel any trip due to unforeseen circumstances, full refunds (only equivalent to amounts paid prior to cancellation) will be made within 60 days of the cancellation. In such circumstances, Cultured Travel will be held harmless of anything outside of the reimbursement of funds paid directly for the canceled tour.

Departure Dates

Cultured will either have pre-selected departure dates for tours, or will do its best to accommodate the dates requested by any particular group. While Cultured does everything possible to consider costs for participants, dates of travel do directly impact the cost of any tour. Due to varying factors, it may be necessary for reassignment of dates. Cultured reserves the right to book dates for groups in a window of +/- 3 days of the original requested departure date as needed. The departure date will be set and all participants notified a minimum of 30 days prior to departure.

Flights

Participants are responsible for booking their own flights unless specified and arranged with Cultured. With group flights, Cultured typically uses routine flights to its destinations. Cultured is not responsible for incidents directly involving airlines. Cultured reserves the right to utilize any airline of its choosing and may change or substitute airlines at any time. Non-stop flights, nor single stop flights are not guaranteed. Multiple airlines may be used to reach a destination. Any changes in air transit schedules or airlines including but not limited to delays and cancellation do not warrant a reason for a refund or cancellation of a trip. This applies to flights booked by Cultured or by the participant.

Luggage and Belongings

Cultured is in no way liable for any damage, loss, or delay of luggage. Airlines have varying policies and it is the responsibility of the participant to verify what items and sizes may be transported to and from the destination and if any fees will be assessed by the airline for baggage. Any participant must abide by and is subject to any contracts issued by the airlines. Cultured is in no way liable for any damage or loss to personal property while on tour.

Final Details

For any tours booked more than a year in advance, please note that all prices will be finalized approximately 12 months prior to the tour. All final details of the tour including hotel information and group flight information if applicable will be available no less than 30 days prior to the departure of the tour.

Group Size

The size of the group will directly affect the price the participants pay for a customized group tour. Cultured values the enhancement all participants experience when traveling in a smaller group. For this reason, participants can expect to be in groups of approximately 30 participants or less. This number will include any program escorts and/or chaperones as applicable. For this reason, space on tours is limited. Cultured reserves the right to make any changes in the price as well as the itinerary, hotels, airlines, etc. as needed to best accommodate the size of the group.

Who can enroll on a Cultured Travel tour?

Anyone can travel on a Cultured tour. Cultured does not permit children under the age of 18 to travel on tours without being accompanied by a parent or guardian.

Special Accommodations

Participants of Cultured tours will need to have the capability to but not limited to walk long distances, carry luggage, walk up several flights of stairs, and potentially walk up hills. All tours are fast-paced and will require a certain level of physical exertion. While Cultured will do its best, special accommodations for medical needs and special accommodations for meals cannot be guaranteed. Medical supervision will in no way be provided by Cultured.

Enrollment

An individual is considered enrolled on a Cultured tour only once their registration has been processed, all necessary documents are signed and received by Cultured, and any required deposits have been received. All information within registration forms must be clearly written and spelled correctly. Enrollment is to be done online through the booking page specific to the desired trip. Typical enrollment will require a deposit which may be non-refundable and which varies per trip. Cultured reserves the right to deny any registration and will deny any registration which has been received after spaces for the tour are full or the enrollment deadline has passed. If a registration is refused, any money paid with the registration will be refunded within 45 days of receipt. Typical enrollment will not be accepted past 70 days prior to departure for any trips involving air travel. If a registration is refused due to spaces being full for a tour, participants may be placed on a waiting list and notified if any cancellations occur prior to 70 days before departure.

Payments

In order to secure your place on one of our tours, a deposit of either $1,000 or 25% (whichever is less) is due at the time of booking. 50% of the total cost of the trip is due 12 months prior to the start of a tour. The remaining balance of any tour is due 90 days prior to the start of a tour. Payments may be received via check or online (for an additional convenience fee). The traveler's name and tour the payment is for must be clearly displayed on any checks received. If paying with a check, you are permitting Cultured to use the information found on the check to make a transfer from that account and thus process the transaction. Cultured will charge a $55 fee for any returned check. Returned checks will only be resubmitted after the necessary authorization is given.

Varied payment plans will be available upon request. Any participants who do not meet the necessary payment deadlines established may be assessed a non-refundable fee of $75. If two payment deadlines are missed, Cultured may remove a traveler from the tour and any money paid will be subject to Cultured's refund policy.

Cancellation and Refund Policy

All cancellations must be received in writing to info@culturedtravel.org with the word Cancellation followed by the name of the participant and the tour from which they are being canceled in the subject line, or to P.O. Box 777 Mars, PA 16046 with the same information at the top of the correspondence. The notification of cancellation must be from the participant or legal guardian if participant is a minor. Cultured will provide confirmation of cancellation upon receipt of the cancellation.
